

MARKET GLUTTED WITH MACKEREL

SEVERAL CORKING FARES
LANDED YESTERDAY AND UNLOADED TODAY.

For the first time in many years, especially at this time of the season, a fleet of mackerel seiners lay at the various local wharves, holds full of mackerel, and not a fish taken out before evening. Fifteen of the mackerel fleet, with a total catch of nearly a half million pounds of medium fish, came straggling into port yesterday forenoon, and due to an agreement among themselves, the members of the Gloucester Fish exchange did not take a pound of fish out until last night, when the fleet began to unload.

Fresh fish receipts this morning were landed by three druggers, their combined catch totalling 55,000 pounds, which went to fillet. Gill net receipts Thursday amounted to 800 pounds, but none of the boats were out yesterday.

July 7

PIER RECEIPTS.

Last Week's Landings Little Less Than Year Ago.

At the Boston fish pier for the week ending July 3 there were 115 arrivals with 4,301,500 pounds of fresh fish. In the corresponding period last year, there were 113 arrivals and 4,313,800 pounds of fresh fish landed.

From January 1 to date, there have been 3366 arrivals and receipts of 148,179,675 pounds as compared with 2959 arrivals and receipts of 133,202,612 pounds in 1929.

Lobsters Higher.

Receipts of lobsters have fallen off materially and prices are higher. Dealers are quoting large boiled at about 55 cents per pound; chickens, 50 cents; live, large, 45 cents; and chickens, 42 cents per pound.

LOCAL MARKET WELL SUPPLIED

SEVEN SEINERS AND FIVE FRESH
TRIPS IN PORT THIS MORNING.

Local dealers had a plentiful supply of fresh fish today, there being seven seiners and five off-shore boats up to noon. The seiners ran fares of fish from 12,000 pounds up to 85,000 pounds, the bulk of them going to the splitters. The Albert D. Willard, arriving Saturday afternoon, had to dump about 15,000 pounds of two pound fish, being too soft for the knife.

The General Seafoods took four off-shore druggers this morning, the quartette bringing in 230,000 pounds of haddock for filleting. The Boston beam trawler Penguin arrived from the grounds last night about 7.30 o'clock, and landed a fare of 100,000 pounds of fresh fish for the Gorton-Pew filleting plant. Gill netters landed 7500 pounds of fresh fish Saturday.
